

Creator Assertions Working Group Operating Addendum

This Working Group Operating Charter extends the Scope and details the related requirements and operational processes important for the Working Group's operation. This document is not legally binding but once approved by the Working Group it provides additional requirements for the Working Group.

1. Working Group Name. Creator Assertions Working Group

2. Operations and Duties

Initial chairs include:

- Eric Scouten (Adobe)
- Additional co-chair to be selected

Infrastructure Provided by DIF

- Teleconferencing infrastructure (Zoom)
- Transcription for all meetings
- Audio recording for all meetings
- AI-generated summary for all meetings
- Scheduling / calendar series for group meetings
- Archival and public sharing of all transcriptions and audio recordings of all meetings
- Slack channel for group asynchronous communications
- Newsletter / announcements of key working group updates
- Github organization for WG repos and operational support
- A list of all participants that have signed the Intellectual Property Release agreements

3. Participation

1. The initial set of external organizations invited to participate includes: a. Trust Over IP \(TOIP\), b. Creator Assertions Working Group \(CAWG\) signers (as of 1 February, 2025)
2. The WG chairs have the authority to extend this offer of participation to additional organizations beyond those initially listed.
3. Participants from all included organizations are considered full participants, including eligibility for chair roles within the working group.
4. Participants from included organizations may join the WG without additional fees, provided they sign agreements adhering to the specified intellectual property terms.
5. All aspects of participation, including the initial list of organizations, extensions to additional organizations, and participant rights, are subject to potential override by the DIF Steering Committee at their discretion.